Please tick appropriate	Yes	No
Is the application an application for permission for development to which Part V of the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended, applies? ⁷		X

If the answer to the above question is "yes" and the development is not exempt (see below), you must provide, as part of your application, details as to how you propose to comply with section 96 of Part V of the Act including, for example, (i) details of such part or parts of the land which is subject to the application for permission or is or are specified by the Part V agreement, or houses situated on such aforementioned land or elsewhere in the planning authority's functional area proposed to be transferred to the planning authority, or details of houses situated on such aforementioned land or elsewhere in the planning authority's functional area proposed to be leased to the planning authority, or details of any combination of the foregoing, and (ii) details of the calculations and methodology for calculating values of land, site costs, normal construction and development costs and profit on those costs and other related costs such as an appropriate share of any common development works as required to comply with the provisions in Part V of the Act."

(iii) If the answer to the above question is "yes" but you consider that paragraph (j) of Section 96(3) would be applicable, evidence of when site was purchased should be submitted.

RECEIVED: 21/07/2026

If the answer to the above question is “yes” but you consider the development to be exempt by virtue of section 97 of the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended ⁸ , a copy of the Certificate of Exemption under section 97 must be submitted (or, where an application for a certificate of exemption has been made but has not yet been decided, a copy of the application should be submitted).

If the answer to the above question is “no” by virtue of section 96(13) of the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended ⁹ , details indicating the basis on which section 96(13) is considered to apply to the development should be submitted.

Part V condition already in place for parent permission. Whilst there is one additional unit proposed (30 No. duplex units replaced with 31 No. apartments), the total floorspace of the apartments is 593 sq m less than the duplex units so there is no additional Part V requirement.
